

Level 3 Fabrication and Welding Advanced Apprenticeship Technician, Washington NE38 9BZ

Applicants must have a Level 2 qualification in Performing Engineering Operations

The Company

This company was established in 1995 and has developed from supplying fabricated machine components to become one of the leading design to installation companies in the UK. This company has a state of the art facilities and a committed and professional workforce.

This company combine a range of specialist fabrication skills with the most up to date CNC machining, providing a quality service across a broad range of industries. They manage projects from design to fabrication and installation, their in-house services ensure greater control on all aspects of any given project.

Job Role

The role is 37 hours a week. Monday- Thursday 08:00- 16:30 Friday 08.00 - 13.00 and duties will include:

- Design, fabricate, fixtures and various types of metal objects and structures using, electric arc, MIG and TIG welding techniques.
- Operate drill presses, power saws, grinders and a variety of welding equipment and hand tools
- Analyses plans, drawings, work samples, specifications and work orders to determine work requirements and sequence of welding assignments.
- Sheet metal work

Applicants must have a Level 2 qualification in Performing Engineering Operations and GCSE grade C/4 or above in English and Maths

Salary

The successful applicants will ideally be able to start immediately on a salary of £3.90 per hour with increments based on successful progression.

To Apply

Interested in this or any of our other apprenticeship vacancies? Apply online at www.seta.co.uk
Please click on Engineering at the top of the online form and quote reference DJFAB in the reference box.